Event Description

Join Mano a Mano: Cultura Mexicana sin Fronteras in a 4 day celebration of Mexico's Day of the Dead!!

This year's activities include everything from altar making to sugar skulls, and even a celebration of the life of Michael Jackson! All events are free and open to the public. Check online for complete schedule.

“Mano a Mano: Mexican Culture Without Borders will host its seventh annual Day of the Dead (Día de los muertos). A variety of events and workshops will be offered in the churchyard of St. Mark's in the Bowery (10th Street and Second Avenue in Manhattan) from Friday, October 30th to Monday, November 2nd. All events are free and open to the public.

Day of the Dead has been one of Mexico's most important celebrations since pre-Hispanic times. It is a time for families to gather and welcome the souls of the dead on their annual visit home. Cempasúchil (marigold) flowers, burning copal incense, fresh pan de muertos bread, candles, sugar skulls, photographs and mementos of the departed adorn special altars. In Mexico, Day of the Dead is celebrated over an entire week with the preparation of altars, foods, dance, music and special offerings for people who have died. Mano a Mano recreates the magical space of a village churchyard during the celebration and has organized a series of events including altar building, workshops, dance, poetry and music.” Manoamano.us
